To qualify for Accomplishment Coaching certification, you are required to have a minimum of 100 hours coaching experience with a minimum of 8 clients with whom you have a signed contract for the purposes of coaching. A minimum of 70* of these hours must be for monetary compensation.

*Given the continued impact of COVID-19, Accomplishment Coaching has temporarily approved an increase in the proportion of eligible pro bono coaching hours for ACCC applicants who apply by December 31, 2021. This temporary measure is in compliance with the temporary changes being honored by the ICF Credentials and Standards Board.

To qualify as a coaching hour(s) the following requirements also apply:

- The coaching hours must be completed during or after your Accomplishment Coaching Coaches' Training Program with clients with whom you are coaching using Accomplishment Coaching Tools, Distinctions and the ICF Core Competencies.
- No more than 30* of these hours can be pro bono arrangements. Paid hours shall be any hours for which any amount of monetary compensation is received. Barter arrangements DO NOT qualify as paid or unpaid hours.
- A client coaching hour is 60 minutes of actual coaching with someone who has hired you as a coach and not in any other capacity.
- For coaching hours to qualify, there must be a written agreement in place (includes both pro-bono and paying clients).
- Single pro bono hours with individuals (e.g. complimentary sample sessions) may only be counted if there are subsequent paid coaching hours under written agreement.
- Coaching of the demonstration ("guest") clients in the CTP cannot be counted as coaching hours, nor may they be counted as one of the 8 required clients.
- Teaching coaching workshops does not count as client coaching hours.
- The Essence Conversation does not count as coaching hours.
- One hour of group coaching counts as ONE client coaching hour, regardless of the number of people in the group; it is not the number of hours multiplied by the number of clients in the group.
- Group coaching shall be documented listing the group name, number of group participants and full contact information for one person, who shall represent the group.

In keeping with the ICF Code of Ethics, you must obtain consent from your clients to release their names to Accomplishment Coaching and for the Certification Review Committee to contact them in the event it becomes necessary. We do NOT require you to submit confirmation of this consent. Should the Certification Review Committee deem it necessary to contact clients, it will be for the specific purpose of confirming they were coaching clients of the applicant; the Committee will not discuss the specific topics of coaching.
